Ari J. Rosenthal focuses his practice in commercial and real estate related litigation. His experience includes litigation of complex real estate related matters such as construction defects, commercial and mechanic's lien foreclosures, leasehold disputes, broker's liens, lender liability, and title insurance issues. He also handled general business litigation involving issues of fraud, tortious interference, non-compete agreements, corporate dissolution/shareholder remedies, professional liability and insurance coverage and contract disputes. Ari has been a lecturer on professional liability and insurance coverage and contract disputes. Ari has been a lecturer on the enforcement and litigation of mechanic's liens and construction disputes. He began his career as in-house counsel for Chicago Title Insurance Company. Later, he was a partner at Bell, Boyd and Lloyd, and thereafter was founder and partner in the law firm of Thompson, Rosenthal & Watts, LLP.

NOTEWORTHY

• Ari helped create and is presently a court appointed mediator for the Will County Mandatory Mediation Foreclosure Program, which was the first program of its kind in Illinois. The program requires mandatory mediation between mortgage lenders and homeowners at the outset of any foreclosure and has been used as a model by not only other Illinois judicial circuits, but nationwide as well.
