Jared I. Rothkopf has been practicing law for more than six years in the areas of corporate, litigation and real estate. He represents landlords and tenants in the negotiation and drafting of commercial, retail, industrial, and office space leases. Jared's residential and commercial real estate experience includes reviewing and clearing title; refinance transactions and sales and purchases. He is proficient in the litigation of landlord/tenant disputes, commercial evictions, professional liability defense, mechanics' liens and construction.

Previously, Jared was an associate at Kaplan Papadakis and Gournis P.C. and also served as general counsel for a consumer products manufacturer/distributor/importer, assisting with commercial transactions, employment issues, litigation strategy, insurance procurement and reporting, and developing/enforcing the company's intellectual property portfolio.
